

Custom Forms

Set up the forms your team needs to collect the right information at the right times

Data collection is absolutely vital to maintain workflow progress. While standardized templates can be useful, your agency deserves the flexibility to tailor customized forms to your processes, needs, and next steps. Create and implement the right forms for your team with equivant Supervision.

Key Features

---

Large library of customizable forms and data fields available for use

Drag and drop functionality

Support to enhance, alter, and build forms accordingly

With equivant Supervision, your agency can:

- Track information and updates along each client's journey
- Implement forms from intake to ongoing case management and every stage in between
- Save time by building and maintaining personalized forms
- Automatically feed information and data into the equivant Supervision Case Management solution
- Confidently rely on protected forms that ensure the highest standards of privacy and security at each and every stage

Leverage our vast collection of templates or customize forms and data sets for ongoing success.