

Risk Needs Assessments

Quickly and effectively identify risk, make decisions, and implement best practices

The varied histories and backgrounds of justice-involved individuals warrant tailored solutions in order to fully understand associated levels of risk and how to mitigate them. Through a multitude of assessments from equivant Supervision, your team can gather accurate and validated data to make better, faster decisions.

Key Features

Measure dynamic risk, need, and stabilization factors

Access regression, typology, and narrative reports

Integrate case planning and outcomes tracking

Configurable supervision recommendations and measured override capabilities

Robust reporting capabilities

With equivant Supervision, your agency can:

- Choose from a library of validated actuarial Risk Needs Assessments (COMPAS, COMPAS-R, LSI-R: SV, LS/ CMI, ORAS, OYAS, WRNA-T) that best suit your workflow, processes, and jurisdiction policies
- Build individualized case plans with our fully integrated features that support the development and execution of individualized supervision and treatment strategies
- Track outcomes from intake to discharge, including capabilities for pre- and post-program evaluation
- Person-centric system that organizes information the case level, but provides a lifetime view of historical data for each client
- Leverage existing static data in new assessments to eliminate redundant data entry and decrease administration time
- Reduce recidivism in your jurisdiction by relying on validated decision support
- Promote change with a proven evidence-based approach to risk and needs assessment

Leverage best-in-class, validated, and empirical assessments to create streamlined supervision strategies for every individual on your caseload.